

You cannot stop. You cannot give up.
You need that momentum to break free.
When a rocket is flying out towards the moon
to escape the atmosphere, it doesn't fucking pause half way up the sky does it? No! It keeps going.
You're in competition with the entire world.
Everyone wants to escape. Everyone wants her.
You cannot be lazy. You are the only person who can make this work and YOU'RE ALSO
ONLY
WHO CAN FUCK THIS UP.
